SUBJECT: ISSUANCE OF ELECTRONIC CERTIFICATES1. Purpose

The purpose of this Maritime Circular is to provide guidance on the implementation of Electronic Certification to all vessels flying with Union of Comoros Flag.

2. Introduction

The Union Of Comoros Flag Administration is delighted to announce that, with effect of 01 January 2026, it will start to issue Electronic Certificates to all vessels are being registered under our Administration. Existing vessels' paper Certificates will be replaced with e-certificates not later that 31st March 2026.

3. Scope of Application

- 1.1 All certificates generated will contain A Quick Response (QR) Code or/and a unique Controlled Certificate Number (e.g. ANAM-XXX-YYWWWW)
 - ANAM - Referring to Nation Agency of Maritime Affairs;
 - XXX – Referring to type of Certificate generated;
 - YY – Referring to the year;
 - WWWW – Referring to the unique issuance number for the certificates within this calendar year.
- 1.2 In accordance with FAL.5/Circ39/Rev.2 all electronic certificates issued after the effective date stated in paragraph 2 may be verified through <https://portal.comorosmaritime.org/> and navigating to Validate a Document or by scanning the QR code.

- 1.3 Certificates without a QR code and with a Controlled Certificate Number starting in END can be verified by:
- Navigating to <https://portal.comorosmaritime.org/>
 - Click on Validate a Document
 - Choose type of Document and provide the required details, then press continue.

4. Encryption/Protection

Certificates produced through this registration system implement PDF encryption (password protection and permissions) as specified in the PDF reference, version 1.3, section 3.5 “Encryption” of the Adobe Supplement ISO 32000. Certificates are therefore in compliance with 4.1.2 of the aforementioned FAL circular.

5. Certificates to be issued Electronically
